

CALL FOR ARTISTS – OPEN SHOW AT NUHS ART GALLERY

The National University of Health Sciences Art Gallery will be presenting their Annual Open Fine Art Show during the months of October and November. The Lombard Arts Coalition (LAC), managers of the gallery, are putting out a call for artists who might be interested in participating in this year's exhibit.

The NUHS Art Gallery regularly features the artwork of LAC member-artists, with a new show presented every two months. During the months of October and November, however, LAC invites additional local artists to exhibit in the gallery with their Annual NUHS Art Gallery Open Fine Art Show.

Past shows have presented artists from all over the Chicagoland area, from Addison to Wheaton and Alsip to Western Springs. It has featured a wide range of media and design, including painting, batik, weaving, and photography.

Participation packets are currently available for this show. Artists interested in participating should contact LAC at (331) 645-3992 if they would like to receive one of these packets or e-mail LAC at info@dupagearts.com
